

PARTY QUIZZING—Participating in the question-answer session at the luncheon meeting of the South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women Thursday was Mrs. Katherine C. Wright (second from right), research chairman of the County Federation of Republican Women. On the asking end were (left to right) Mmes. Peter Fillisti, Stanley K. Sharpe, and Mrs. Earl L. Kent.

Master Hartman Hosts School Days Gathering

Invitations in the shape of the little red schoolhouse this week told of the news of a party to celebrate Master Hal Hartman beginning kindergarten this fall. The young host used the school house theme in decorations, games, and refreshments. A new game to delight the youngster was "Pin the Bell on the School House." After luncheon, games with prizes to suit the occasion were presented. Concluding the afternoon with a gaily decorated cake and ice cream, the youngsters trudged happily home anxiously awaiting the big day—first day at school. Among those attending were Jane Sampson, Cristie Solomon, Gillian Nash, Carole Kessler, Debbie Reiersen, Tracy Mois, Debbie Bolt, Randy Sanders, Johnny Dean, Bobby Lips, Mark Harris, and Steve Abernathy. Assisting Mrs. Harry Hartman, mother of Master Hal were Mrs. June Abernathy and Mrs. Stephen Sampson.

Donna Isbell Marries at Evening Ceremony

Wearing a gown of French Chantilly lace and carrying a bouquet of white stephanotis and orchids, Donna Isbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Milton Isbell, 1516 Beech Ave., became the bride of Winston C. Fuller Saturday evening at the First Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Sid W. Fuller of La Canada are the parents of the bridegroom. Given in marriage by her father, the bride had the blessing of her grandfather, Col. J. F. Fuller, retired Methodist minister, as he assisted the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman in performing the ceremony. Carrying a basket of flower petals, little Miss Sibbie Ansley was the flower girl. Her dress was of pink organza and she wore a hat to match. Mrs. Margie Hoth, matron of honor, and the bridesmaids wore matching gowns of aqua organza over taffeta and lace with matching shoes and hats. Miss Hoth carried a cressent of pale pink carnations. The bridesmaids held cressents of deeper pink. Serving as bridesmaid were Alpha Gamma Delta sorority sisters, Misses Margot Fontes, Carolyn Ciaccio, Kay Hangartner, and Diane Kerber. Brother-in-law of the groom Richard Peterson was the best man. Seating the guests were Russell Hansen, Tom Arnold, Bill Schneider, and Don Gaspard, who were ushers. Following a reception, which was held at the church after the ceremony, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Carmel. The new Mrs. Fuller is a senior at USC, where she is majoring in physical education. Fuller is a student at the school of pharmacy at the university. Upon return from Carmel, the couple will be at home in La Canada.

MRS. WINSTON C. FULLER ... formerly Donna Isbell

Wishams Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wisham, 2023 Arlington Ave., announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Raye, to Charles Stuart Murawski recently. Murawski is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Murawski of Arcadia. The happy bride-to-be is planning a spring wedding, April 22, at the First Christian Church in Temple City. Miss Wisham graduated from Torrance High School in 1958 and now is an Adrian Model. She was a semi-finalist in the Miss California Fashion Model of the Year contest. Murawski graduated from Temple City High School in 1957. He attended Pasadena City College and was a member of Kappa Gamma fraternity. He is employed at the Link Belt Co., Montebello.

SHARON RAYE WISHAM ... Betrothed

Women

Lavina Nugen ... Women's Editor ... TORRANCE PRESS ... TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Carmel Honeymoon for Richard Stones

The First Methodist Church in San Pedro was chosen by Miss Linda Jones for her afternoon wedding Sept. 3, as she exchanged vows with Richard Marvin Stone. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Jones, 26029 Oak St., Lomita. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stone of San Gabriel are the parents of the bridegroom. Wearing a gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta, enriched with sequin studded appliques of Chantilly lace at the neckline, on the sleeves and down the skirt, she appeared in the aisle. The gown was designed with a modified mandarin neckline, three-quarter sleeves and a bouffant skirt, fashioned with a pouf back and falling chapel train. Complimenting the gown was an imported illusion veil caught by a dainty rhinestone tiara. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses interspersed with stephanotis and three sterling silver roses. Serving as honor attendant was Mrs. Carol Baldwin. Wearing gowns of flowered cotton in shades of pink, accented by splashes of lavender, Mrs. Sandra Barum of Glendora, Mrs. Dolores Van Saun of Inglewood, and Mrs. Sally Symon of Daly City were the bridesmaids. They carried bouquets of lavender roses with green velvet stems, with an enlarged duplicate of the design in the material of their dresses. Little Kathy Jo Thomas was flower girl, wearing a dainty frock of lavender nylon over taffeta. She carried a small basket of lavender chrysanthemums. John Foote of Alhambra, a high school friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Charles King of Santa Barbara, Mike Morr of San Marino, Jim Jones of Lomita, and John Zyrduaga of Chino. At the beginning of the ceremony, Mrs. Nancy Jo McMullin, a sorority sister of the bride, sang "Always" and "Beacuse." While the couple knelt at the altar, Mrs. McMullin sang "The Lord's Prayer." Performing the marriage ceremony was the Rev. Clarence E. Spier, pastor of the Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church. The newlyweds will return to Isla Vista, north of Santa Barbara, to begin their last semester at the University of California following a honeymoon in Carmel. The new Mrs. Stone graduated from Narbonne High School. At mid-term Mrs. Stone will receive her teaching credentials from the University of California at Santa Barbara, where she is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Stone will receive his BA degree in industrial management during mid-term graduation. Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stone and family from San Jose; his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Griffin and Yvonne; and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baptiste and family of San Francisco.

MRS. RICHARD MARVIN STONE ... nee Linda Jones ... Photo by Stanfords

Couple Pledge Vows at Christian Church

Saturday, Sept. 3, at 7 p.m., Miss Leta Inez Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil E. Brady, 1880 Plaza Del Amo, became the bride of Robert Joseph Englehart. Mrs. Ruth Englehart of Chicago, mother of the bridegroom, came to attend the wedding. Miss Lillian Sanstill, carried white carnations. Serving as the other attendant, Mrs. Robert Gow wore blue crepe and carried a cascade of white carnations. Howard Brady, brother of the bride, served as best man and ushers were Jack Stassin and Lawrence Goff. Officiating at the marriage ceremony was the Rev. O'Dell Myers. At the organ, Mrs. Eleanor Haynes played a background of nuptial music and the wedding marches. Fred Lincoln Jr. sang "Wedding Prayer." Miss Sharon Thompson was in charge of the guest book at the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds will be at home in Torrance after a honeymoon at Las Vegas.

MRS. ROBERT ENGLEHART ... nee Leta Brady ... Photo by Seemans

Yukon PTA Board Fills Membership

A buffet luncheon welcoming the Yukon school faculty and staff members will be held Monday, Sept. 12 at the home of Mrs. Wendall Towell, 17512 Ermanita Ave. Filling vacancies in the roster of chairmen in the executive board are: Mmes. Don Hibbert, second vice president; C. L. Tierney, inspiration chairman; and Ken Monahan who will be in charge of the library. Other board members who will serve under the leadership of Mrs. Joseph Fletcher, president, are: Mrs. Victor Moore, vice president; Mrs. Elmer Groves, recording secretary; Mrs. Rea Tucker, treasurer; Mrs. James Bramlett, historian; Mrs. Wendall Morgan, parliamentarian; Mrs. Otis Hatfield, art; Mrs. Glen Mahoney, Founder's Day; and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, honorary life. Paul Sittel is auditor, with Mrs. Raymond Staley, and Mrs. Phillip Hyken, hospitality and courtesy; Mrs. Paul Hebert, magazine; Mrs. William Tucker, mimeograph; Raymond Staley, legislation; Mrs. M. H. Horstman, music; Mrs. John Mathews, Newsletter. Richard Brown is in charge of parent education with Mrs. Frank Thomason, pins and emblems; Mrs. Robert West, publicity; Mrs. Fred Arney, record book; Mrs. Franklin Carrier, and Mrs. Remlinger, room representatives. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Romero are responsible for student welfare and juvenile protection with Mrs. Ralph Gustilum, T.E.C.A.; and Mrs. William Alexander, telephone.

Fern-Greenwood PTA Entertains Faculty Members

Mrs. G. W. Ackerman, president of the Fern-Greenwood PTA, and members of the executive board will entertain faculty members with a coffee break at the cafeteria Tuesday afternoon. Coffee, cake, and "getting acquainted with each other" has become a tradition on the afternoon prior to school opening, as the teachers take a break from reading their room for the first day of school. Plans are being completed for the ice cream social at the first association meeting, to be held at the Fern Ave. school Sept. 20. Oct. 12 has been set as the opening day of the fall paper drive.

Torrance Juniors Begin Fall Term

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, C.F.W.C., Marina District, will hold the first business meeting of the fall season Wednesday at the Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., with Mrs. Lee Clotworthy presiding. Of particular interest will be the talk given by the Rev. James D. Colbert, vice president of The Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, who will present a message regarding the danger of Communism. He has recently returned from a world tour, where he studied Communism at work in many areas, particularly the Far East.

Noted Republican Leader to Address Local Group

Addressing a gathering at the Torrance Republican Headquarters, 1406 Cravens, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Valley Knudsen, noted Southern California clubwoman, will speak to local Republicans. Mrs. Knudsen currently is national co-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon Committee. Aiding Mrs. Kay Smith, program chairman, will be Tom Brewer, president, and Mmes. Anita Sharpe and Marian Carter, who announced the meeting was open to the public and refreshments will be served.

MRS. VALLEY KNUDSEN ... to speak here

Flavian PTA in Move for New Members

"Make History with Flavian" was the theme selected for the membership drive of the Flavian PTA when the Executive Board met at the home of Mrs. Mike Bankers, Magazine and Emblem Chairman, on Thursday, Sept. 1. Final arrangements for the annual teacher's luncheon to be held Tuesday, Sept. 13, were discussed. A recommendation to hold the annual "Harvest of Fun" carnival on Saturday, Oct. 29, would be presented to the members of the association at the first meeting of the 1960-61 year on Thursday, Sept. 15.

Buffet Features Hoboland Theme

Geranium filled cans and candles set in pop bottles will decorate newspaper covered tables at the Evelyn Carr Elementary School Hobo luncheon tomorrow held at the school. Sponsoring the buffet luncheon, members of the school PTA board will serve from kettles, pots and other odd containers. Members of the committee include Mrs. Perry Baker, president; Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Richard Hansen, Mrs. Nels Weberg, Mrs. Robert Thomas, Mrs. Glen Scrivner and Mrs. Carl Fadiek.

Wesleyan Service Guild Sponsors Rummage Sale

A rummage sale, sponsored by the Wesleyan Service Guild, will be held Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado. Mrs. Edna Moffat, chairman, with committee members Mrs. Chelcia Shelby and Mrs. Virginia Sloat are expecting a successful event, they said. Members of the guild are urged to bring their rummage to the kindergarten room of the church on or before Thursday.